LOCAL AND STATE: ORGANIZATION .- The Raleigh Sentinel suggests the following mode of uniting all the conservative opposition to radical rule throughout the State, and as the most efficient plan of organization yet presented, It should be at once acted upon, and every county and precinct proceed immediately to take steps in conformity to it. Let not old Edgecombe, once known as the Banner County of Eastern Carolina, now prove laggard in her duty, TO THE CONSERVATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL UNION MEN OF - COUNTY .- The undersigned, citizens of - County, friends of the American Union and supporters of the Constitution of the United States, being convinced that the incorporation of the Brownlow-Holden-Radical programme into surely embarrass, if not anufbilate, all enterprise and all hope of recuperation, and would discourage all immigration, the inrestment of capital and diminish or destroy The sources of employment to our laboring population, do most earnestly implore all uservative citizens of every County in the State, to hold meetings for the adopion of such plans as they may deem wisest and best, for uniting and consolidating the Conservative influence in the State, to effectively prevent the success of ulfra Republican or Radical rule in our State organization.

The Congress of the United States has cut us off from all participation at present in National politics. Nothing is left us but the care of our State institutions, and this movement has nothing to do with National politics or with hindering or attempting to obstruct the operation of any law of Congress. It has simple reference only to the preventing of the incorporation of those Radical principles and measures into our State organization, which would place the control and government of the State in the hands of the ignorant, the vicious and the most unprincipled among us, which would certainly result in the destruction of the enterprise and vitality of the State .-All the aid or encouragement, therefore, which this mayement could give to the friends of Constitutional liberty and free government, elsewhere, would be simply

We, therefore, arge all Conservative Constitutional Union men of the County of , of all parties holding these views, to unite with us in holding a meeting at the Court House in - on the the present month, to effect the above named object, and we urge our fellow citizens of the several registration precincts in the County to unite with us, or hold meetings in their several precincts. [Names of signers.]

A BIG SHOW AND GRAND PARADE. - John Robinson's Mammouth Combination Circus and Menagerie visited Tarboro' on Saturday last, and gave two performances-the like of which we have seldom before witthe press and the public throughout the South, when we endorse the exhibitions of this great institution as the ne plus altra of manner, and a more genticianly set of showmen we never expect to see. The Martin County. management is liberal to a fault, and the whole thing moves along with the preci- the occasion will, as usual, attract a large sion of a clock. We take an especial assemblage. pleasure in commending this show to the most liberal patronage. The name of John Robinson-(don't confound the "John," with any of the other shows managed by R. binsons) -but John Robinson, me mean, the old veteran showman of forty years experience, is so well known in this country that his bare name is enough to fill the la gest canvass whenever announced at the head of a circus. Such was the case on Saturday last-the largest canvass ever reared in l'arboro' was inadequate to hold, comfortably, the great crowd that flocked to the show, Everybody was pleased with what they saw, arything passed off in the most quiet and satisfactory manner. As to the various acts introduced in the arena, we need not particularize where everything was good,-but we were astonished at the magnificent and graceful riding of Miss Alice, who is appropriately styled the " Queen of the Arena." We doubt whether her equal is to be found. Messrs. Lowlow, Bernard, Wilson, Boyd, Sloman. Osborne, Frank Robinson, Campbell, Johnston, Mast. Willie, Little Alice, &c., &c., were all most excellent in their various acts. The collection of wild animals was very fine, and the performing elephant "Empress" was the wonder of all who

The street procession in the morning was a most imposing spectacle, and showed at a glance the immense resources at the disposal of the management for the productions of the most excellent performances that afterwards were given under the huge Old John Robinson and his show will al-

N. C. Soldiers .- We clip from the Warrenton Indicator the following well merited tribute to the character of Carolina troops, and among them to the memory of one our whole State takes so much pride in honoring. Edgecombe county claims the "bravest soldier" of the Army of Northern Virginia, as peculiarly her own.

"The Petersburg Index, some ten days ago, in noticing a recent article in the Henderson (N. C.) Index upon the unfairness of Pollards paper in regard to the soldiers of our State, says :

Of our own knowledge we can testify to the valor of the men sent to the field by the mother of Pender, Pettigrew, of Branch of Anderson, and of Cooke; their deeds were above praise.'

We refer to this for the purpose of adding another Virginia testimony to that just given. When in Petersburg recently, a distinguished resident of that city told us, that he heard Genl. Ambrose P. Hill say, in an ever to an inquiry made him, as to what troops he preierred, that he had rather have North Carolina troops than those from any other State. He said whilst they always fought as bravely as those from any State whatever, they were more sub-missive to authority—more tractable.— Hence they were really better soldiers.— Our distinguished friend also stated, that the asked Gen'l Hill who was the best Mafor General in the Confederate service .-His answer was General Pender. We were pleased to hear this, as it confirms our own impression, and what we had said some months ago in these columns. Gen'd Lee doubtless shared with Gen'l Hill in nirable eulogy in his report of the campaign in which Gen'l. Pendar fell. That eulogy ought to La engraven upon a tablet of bronze or marble, and placed in our State Capitel. to let future generations know the estimate in which our foremost soldier was held by the great Leader in our late gigantic struggle, as well as to teach them of what stuff their ancestors were made."

AGRICULTURAL CATEGUISM .- This little volume has been lying on our table for some time, and we have been unable as yet to examine it in a manner, worthy of the subject, which it treats. As a Text-Book for the common schools in North Carolina, we should consider it a valuable addition to school literature, calculated, as it is, to meet a want long felt in all institutions of learning. The seience of farming must hereafter claim a larger share of public attention, and any useful information upon this important subject must be accordingly apprecia- admiration is strong.

B. F. Grady, Jr., Neuse River Academy, Wayne county, is the author.

The gentleman procured an the Constitution of the State would most ambulance, and the pair went into the country somewhere. On his return to this city yesterday, our informant learned that the eloping pair were a Mrs. Solomon, from Brinkleyville, North Carolina, and Mr. Walker, a clerk of Mrs. Solomon's husband. The lady appeared to be about 25 years of age, quite pretty and lady-like in appearance. The gentleman was young, handsome and gay.

The next issue of the paper has following : Their flight commenced from Buffalo Springs, where they had gone for their health. On Sunday morning, the Chief of Police received the following telegram, which shows that Mr. S. is more anxious to reclaim the goods taken off than Mrs. S. "PETERSBURG, Sept. 21, 1867. Chief of Police, Richmond:

AGRICULTURAL .- We take pleasure in commending to the farming community of Edgecombe and adjoining counties, the advantages presented by C. Billups, No. 11 Wide Water Street, Norfolk, Va., to obtain all the most superior styles of farming implements needed on a plantation. We would particularly call the attention of the Cotton Growers of this section to the facts stated in his advertisement, (to be found elsewhere) in regard to the superior qualities of the "Star" Gin, which last Fall proved the most successful of all in use, and which received the first premiums over all the Gins hitherto in favor with Southern farmers. Last season the Gin now referred to was known as the Emery Bro., "Star" Gin,-

In consequence of the fact that many persons have confounded it with another kind, Similar Only in Name, they have left out the name Emery and insist on the title TWINKLE LITTLE STARS .- The first number of the Evening Star, published at Wilmington, by Messrs. Bernard and Evans, made its long predicted appearance yesterday, differing but little from its rival planet of Goldsboro. The light radiating from the new comet gives promise of greater brilliance in the future. "Even as one Star exceeds another in glory," so must we account for the eclipse hanging over the radical satelite of Rutherfordton The Evening Star bids fair to become a Star" actor in all this starry firmament. Almost a Row .- Just after the close of the performances, Saturday night, under the "Big Tent," and while the crowd was congregating to witness the wonderful exploits of the educated hog and other curiosities, a disturbance arose between the showmen and colored people, which at one time threatened quite a serious termination, but which was quelled by the exertions of some of our citigens:

One of the negroes was shot through the hand, while one of the circus employees was badly cut with a knife. Nothing more.

NORTH CAROLINA COTTOR .- The first bale of the new cot,on crop of North Carolina | Lard-No. 1 16@17c. was received in Baltimore on Sunday, the 15th, by Cyrus P. Mendenhall & Co. The sample was forwarded by rail from Goldsboro, N. C. Its grade is low middling, and sold for 23 cents.

His well known proficiency in selecting the very kind of stock suitable to this market is A few days since, a gentleman from this every where appreciated and understood, and in this instance, we can assure our readers, he has in no wise failed in judgment.
